

HIGHLIGHTS

THE ASCENT OF MONEY

Channel 4, 8pm
 Though we all know by now how greed, poor regulation and property speculation has ruined the economy, Niall Ferguson gives us a detailed history of how exploiting the need for somewhere to live became such a big and risky business.

NIGELLA'S CHRISTMAS KITCHEN

BBC2, 8:30pm
 A visit to fantasy land, as we get to watch the lovely Nigella pout her way through Christmas menus. It's easy to mock her upper-middle-class lifestyle and friends and her doe eyes, but the fact is that her recipes work. So, get ready to knock up a few mince pies and other essentials that can be frozen ready for the big event. She also makes a lamb tagine as part of a Three Wise Men theme. Two episodes follow, on tomorrow and Wednesday, and series one will be repeated from Thursday.

THE ADVENTURES OF DON ROBERTO

BBC2, 9pm
 The story of Robert

Bontine Cunninghame Graham, left, who was one of those figures that should be better known today. An aristocrat from Renfrewshire, he became the first socialist MP and, eventually a rancher in the Wild West. Cool, huh?

CHOSEN

Channel 4, 10pm
 Three men who endured sexual abuse at private school talk about the impact it has had on their lives more than 30 years on.
